

Early Journal Content on JSTOR, Free to Anyone in the World

This article is one of nearly 500,000 scholarly works digitized and made freely available to everyone in the world by JSTOR.

Known as the Early Journal Content, this set of works include research articles, news, letters, and other writings published in more than 200 of the oldest leading academic journals. The works date from the mid-seventeenth to the early twentieth centuries.

We encourage people to read and share the Early Journal Content openly and to tell others that this resource exists. People may post this content online or redistribute in any way for non-commercial purposes.

Read more about Early Journal Content at <http://about.jstor.org/participate-jstor/individuals/early-journal-content>.

JSTOR is a digital library of academic journals, books, and primary source objects. JSTOR helps people discover, use, and build upon a wide range of content through a powerful research and teaching platform, and preserves this content for future generations. JSTOR is part of ITHAKA, a not-for-profit organization that also includes Ithaka S+R and Portico. For more information about JSTOR, please contact support@jstor.org.

This notice must not be removed under penalty of law, except by the order of the health officer; and such placard shall not be removed until such time as the order or directions of the health officer shall have been complied with and the removal of such placard authorized by the health officer.

CHELSEA, MASS.

Offensive Trades—Regulation of (Rule, Board of Health, Adopted Oct. 29, 1912.)

RULE 58a. No person or persons shall exercise any of the following trades or employments, viz, that of manufacturing fertilizers, of mixing or storing refuse animal or vegetable substances, or sorting or picking feathers, of refining oils, of making egg dressing, varnish, glue, gas, water-gas, gasoline or any burning fluid, within the city, except at places where such trades or employments are now lawfully established, or where such trades may hereafter be assigned by the board of health; no person or persons shall exercise any of the following trades or employments, viz, that of slaughtering animals or fowl, of rendering animal matter, of smoking fish or meat, except at places where such trades or employments are now lawfully established and licensed or where such trades or employments may hereafter be assigned and licensed by the board of health, all such licenses expiring June 1, annually; above said trades or employments being either a nuisance, or hurtful to the inhabitants of this city, dangerous to the public health, attended by noisome and injurious odors, or otherwise injurious to health of said inhabitants.

DES MOINES, IOWA.

Board of Health—Organization and Duties (Ordinance Adopted Nov. 11, 1912).

SECTION 1. There is hereby created the health department which shall be a division of the department of public safety.

SEC. 2. Organization.—The health department shall consist of the health officer, city physician, secretary, quarantine sergeant, and such other inspectors as may be authorized by statute or ordinance.

SEC. 3. City Physician—Duties.—That the city council shall, upon its first organization, elect a city physician who has practiced medicine and resided in the city for at least two years and who shall hold his office for the term of two years and until his successor is elected and qualified.

The city physician shall be the physician to the board of health and shall perform any and all duties as may be ordered by the said board, city council, or superintendent of public safety. He shall attend upon any accidents or injuries of persons within the city, upon the call of the marshal or the chief of the fire department, his assistants, or any member of the police or fire department authorized by the marshal or the chief of the fire department to make such call, and shall accompany or provide a substitute, who shall be a physician, to accompany the ambulance in the transportation of all persons to their residence or hospital as the case may be. He shall attend only such firemen or policemen as may be injured in the discharge of their duties, and shall give the first aid to all injured persons, but he shall not be required to attend or administer to other city employees except as herein provided.

He shall make a physical examination of all persons holding or seeking positions under the city government when so required by the superintendent of any department having charge of such appointment or examination for position and render a written report on the same.

He shall attend any person in the city jail upon call from the city jailer and shall send any person who in his opinion is entitled to such aid to the hospital, and shall keep in communication and attendance upon such cases which have been sent and discharge such patients when in his opinion they should leave the hospital. He